March 31-April 1, 2018 | Issue No. 20

17010 Pomerado Rd San Diego, CA 92128 858.487.0811 rbpc.org

Thank you for worshipping with us today! You could have chosen to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus with any church, we're honored you chose us. We think of ourselves as a family, so if you are looking for a church family, or if you want to learn more about us, read this newsletter and note my invitation to a "Dinner for 12" with myself in a member's home. I know finding a church home isn't easy, so I've also listed my email below if you have questions about God or church.

The church is a people, not a building. And Easter is a celebration of the One who came to save and restore people, not things. The journey you are on is a personal one, and I trust you will hear the voice of God who calls you His beloved child. For in Christ, all who open their hearts find acceptance, love, forgiveness and grace.

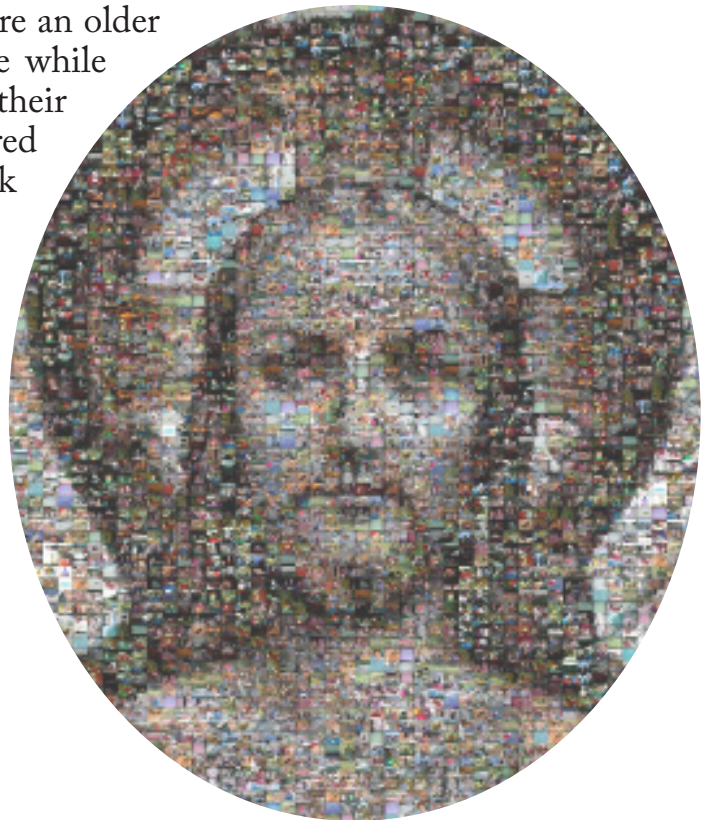

In thinking about Easter, family, and God's love, I've chosen something different for the cover photo. Normally a pastor's article includes a nice picture of her or him, perhaps with a spouse or family. Today I've asked that a picture of Jesus as a mosaic be included instead. What you're viewing is an image that was created by merging thousands of photographs of people and events I've known throughout the years, but who also impacted my faith for the better.

As a child of divorce, there was a season of my life where an older couple from my church in Florida helped care for me while my father went to work. The Speichers, two saints in their seventies, met me when I came home from school, prepared meals for me, and even taught me how to drive a stick shift VW!

The Speichers' photo is not in this image, but their love is represented within it. The church is a people, and those two saints were an important part of God's family for me. Might God be calling you to be that kind of family? Might He be calling you to find that sort of family? We'd love for you to discover the answer to those questions here, where we strive to know Jesus and make Him known.
